

DRESSAGE TO MUSIC DEMONSTRATION

with Catherine Eardley

Catherine is a talented and experienced rider who competes at Prix St George level with her handsome warmblood, Weltmeyer Apollo. She holds regular music clinics, and several of her pupils have enjoyed success at the Regional Dressage finals.

- Come and enjoy a fun evening learning about putting together a dressage to music routine
- First you will help the guinea pigs find music that fits their horses.
- Then learn with them how to design a floor plan that enhances their performance.

Venue – Indoor Arena, Cousland Park Training and Livery Centre
With the kind permission of Celia Henderson

Date and time – Wednesday 17th August - 7-9 pm

Tickets £10 – admission payable on door.

Please bring a chair with you to sit on!

Sorry no refreshments available on this occasion. Do bring your own.

For further information contact Susan Loch on 07758395304. Organised by the Scottish Dressage Group